Orientation 2021 Welcome Letter

Dear New Students,

We want to welcome each of you to Sefako Makgatho Health Sciences University! You are about to begin an exciting time of your academic career. To ensure that you settle with ease, SMU prepared an exciting and extraordinary Online Orientation programme especially for you. This is an official welcome and introduction to SMU. The orientation programme will serve as a foundation for university success and assist you to acclimating to the new environment. We want you to enjoy the campus and take full benefit of everything SMU offers and, in doing so, we inspire you to take apposite personal and collective precautions when living, learning, working, and playing at SMU.

It is mandatory that all new students should attend the orientation week, which will commence online, on the 8 March 2021. The following link must be used to ensure that students and their parents are fully orientated and ready to start the new semester at SMU.
